

Little Amsterdam

CAFÉ • RESTAURANT • DUTCH PANCAKES

Little Amsterdam is the name the Dutch affectionately use for Haarlem; a beautiful market town about 20km west of the capital city, Amsterdam. I was born in Haarlem so to call this café Little Amsterdam is very appropriate and I am looking forward to sharing with you some of the very best The Netherlands has to offer.

It's not just about clogs & tulips, The Netherlands has so much more to offer. From the famous cheese markets to beautiful architecture, from culture and history to the people themselves, and of course, the food. Dutch pancakes are pretty much as popular as fish and chips are here in the UK. Many people think that pancakes are eaten only as a sweet treat but they can be enjoyed as much as any main course.

The Dutch pancake isn't really complete unless it is served with stroop (syrup, pronounced strope) - my favourite is the cheese and bacon pancake, with stroop.. delicious!

I also recommend the "poffertjes," another extremely popular Dutch dish. These are fluffy mini pancake discs, best served with butter and a generous dusting of icing sugar - amazing!

I hope you enjoy your visit to Little Amsterdam.
